THE WRITING ON THE WALL FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF THE SAUDI DARUL KUFR

“When We intend to destroy (the people of) a town/city, then We increase its affluent ones (who drunkenly become drowned in their fisq and fujoor). Then the decree (of punishment) becomes confirmed for them. Then We utterly (uproot and) destroy them.”
(Bani Israaeel, Aayat 16)

THE SAUDI FILTH

The party in the Saudi desert looked like any other rave until the music stopped for the Islamic call to prayer, leaving attendees in ripped skinny jeans and combat boots to stand in silence.

Fifteen minutes later -- religious duties completed -- thousands of party-goers got back to business. Men and women danced with abandon in a country where that would have been unthinkable five years ago.

In contrast, the four-day festival called MDL Beast Soundstorm was endorsed by the government and included performances by global DJs like Tiësto and Armin van Buuren. Organizers say more than 180,000 people attended the opening night, pushing boundaries as the kingdom transforms.

“Allow us progress, allow us to represent ourselves in the way that we feel fit,” said Prince Fahad Al Saud, a royal family member and entrepreneur who attended in a psychedelic-patterned jacket and sparkling eyeliner. “We are very eager to be part of the international community, but we can’t be stifled every time we try to make progress because it doesn’t look like what you want to see.”

*At a recent international film festival in Jeddah, women strutted the red carpet in sleeveless gowns and an openly queer man, Adam Ali, won best actor. *

British supermodel Naomi Campbell was photographed sitting on the floor in front of a traditional Saudi meal, eating with her hands.

“Now everything is here and the world has come to us,” marveled Abdullah Alghamdi, 29, who attended the weekend rave. “There are honestly so many events that you don’t know where to go.”

(End of report)

The reckless, insane and flagrant indulgence of the Saudis in fisq, fujoor and kufr is the commencing sign of the impending Athaab of Allah Azza Wa Jal, which will deracinate these rubbishes and khanaazeer and transform them into history such as the history of Aad and Thamud who had been obliterated by the Punishment of Allah Ta’ala.
